SALARY BOARD SEEKS EXPERT STUDY ON PAY

The Adams County commissioners this morning seemed agreed that a thorough study should be made of salary scales, but seemed disagreed as to how to go about it.

The discussion came at a salary board meeting at which, at Judge W. C. Sheely's suggestion, the pay scale of the tipstiffs was raised from $7 to $9 a day, to be in line with the amount paid jurors.

From there the discussion led to the increase in the number of persons employed by the commissioners which will come about next year when the prothonotary and register and recorder offices go on a salary basis under sixth class county regulations. At present the register and recorder and prothonotary receive fees and employ their own personnel. Next year the commissioners will select those employees in addition to those already named by the commissioners.

PLAN PHYSICAL FITNESS SETUP AT NEW CENTER

Plans for a full-scale physical fitness program beginning as soon as present renovations are complete were outlined Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Adams County Athletic Club at the Youth Center, N. Washington St.

The members toured the three rooms in the basement of the center being developed for use by the athletic club and decided that the physical fitness program will be divided in accordance with age groups and in accordance with the skill of the participants. Hours will be established when supervision will be given and the members graded according to ability, moving up into other groups as they develop in the program.

It was announced that 1,000 pounds of weights have been secured for the weight-lifting program, 600 from donations and 400 owned by members who are permitting their use by the club.

NEED INSTRUCTORS

An additional request was made for volunteer instructors in various phases of physical fitness, boxing, wrestling, weight lifting, etc., particularly to assist those who are starting in the exercises.

With the installation of a shower and locker room, the group also discussed the possibility of securing a plastic steam bath. It was decided that members must have a complete sweat suit to wear while taking part in the program.

Plans were outlined for a formal membership drive to start on completion of the renovations.

PUC HEARINGS ON BUS TOURS END TUESDAY

The hearing on the application of Dr. John J. Knox, trading as Centennial Cabs, to the Pennsylvania Utility Commission for permission to operate buses on the battlefield wound up Tuesday with the principal opponent to Dr. Knox's application, Gettysburg Tours, asking the PUC officials to take a ride over the battlefield in a Gettysburg Tours bus before reaching a final decision.

The session Tuesday at the courthouse here before Examiner Ray G. Replogle marked the fifth day on which the hearings have been conducted.

Tuesday's testimony was listed as the last to be presented to the examiner, other than the request by Gettysburg Tours that the PUC make a trip in the local buses before reaching a decision.

CLAIM SUFFICIENT SERVICE

Dr. Knox's proposal asked permission for operation of buses with licensed guides in them over the battlefield on a regular schedule. Gettysburg Tours, which operates a tape recorded sound effect story of the battle on its buses; Paul Wolf, York Springs, who operates chartered buses on battlefield tours, and Capitol Trailways, which also offers chartered bus service over the battlefield here, opposed the application on the grounds that there is sufficient service presently provided to take care of those wishing to view the field by bus.

Tuesday Bill Warren, operator of Criterion Hotel, Carlisle St., testified that he had made a survey among persons staying at his motel who used the Gettysburg Tours service and found their reaction very favorable. Hans Enggren, former operator of Three Crowns and Stockholm Motels, testified he was favorably impressed with the tape recorded story of the battle given in the Gettysburg Tours buses and said he recommended it because it was standard, the same story was given equally well each time. COUNTIANS ARE TIRED, HAPPY AFTER PARADE

Adams Countians who took part in the inaugural parade Tuesday in Harrisburg today are very happy but mighty tired.

Two local floats and four county high school bands were among the 31 floats and 63 bands that moved through the downtown streets of Harrisburg in a parade that lasted three and a half hours. A crowd estimated at between 250,000 and 300,000 persons lined the streets of the parade route in one of the few sunny inaugural days in a number of years, although the temperature remained at a nippy 30 degrees throughout the day.

As the parade passed the reviewing stand, the Adams County fruitgrowers presented two bushels of Delicious apples to the governor, who, according to Mrs. Richard Trosle of the fruitgrowers association, "took one and started eating it." At about the same time, Mrs. Scranton unwittingly exclaimed, "They're delicious!"

Leading the Adams County groups was the Biglerville High School Band, instead of the Gettysburg High School Band as early plans intended. Because of some error in scheduling, the Gettysburg band was inserted into the parade about an hour before the other local groups. Following the Biglerville band were the fruitgrowers' float, the Littlestown High School Band, the Centennial Commission float and the Bermudian Springs High School Band.

The floats, built by a professional organization in Harrisburg, will be stored for use in parades scheduled for the centennial observances in Gettysburg next summer. They were sponsored by the Pennsylvania Republican Committee.

Howitzer Battery, Second Squadron, 104th Armored Cavalry, National Guard Unit, of Gettysburg, was among the military units in the parade.

The following members were present: P. Emory Weaver, Littlestown; Harper J. Phillips and Son, John, East Berlin; Harvey W. Knouse, Gettysburg; Curvin O. Mickle, Orrtanna R. 1; Ralph L. SALARY BOARD

This led to a general discussion of the duties of the various employees and the value of each job to the county. The value of establishing something similar to the civil service classification for employees of the county was discussed. Under such a program each job and its responsibilities would be outlined and a salary set for each classification of employment.

Commissioners Clarence Waybright and Charles Bender suggested the possibility of having an expert, perhaps from the state Civil Service Commission, study the situation and suggest a schedule for classification of employment. Commissioner E. Donald Scott was opposed. He said that the commissioners were elected to do this work. "We've called in outside help perhaps too often," he said.

Treasurer Daniel J. Wolff said the commissioners could not help bringing in outside experts to set up the retirement program which by state mandate went into effect at the beginning of this year. "Retirement is a specialty. You've got to have experts who know what they're doing," he added.

VOTE TO INQUIRE

Finally the salary board voted 3 to 1 to ascertain the cost of an expert. Scott opposed, and Bender, Waybright and Wolff voted yes.

The board generally agreed to keep all present salary scales as they are with the exception of the tipstaffs. At the same time the board set up a classification of bookkeeper with a starting salary of $2,818.00 per year, an increase to $2,918.00 at the end of six months, $3,018.00 at the start of the second year and $3,118.00 at the start of the third year.

Other business included a decision that all payments to the county shall in the future be made direct to the treasurer instead of having some come through the county commissioners' office.

HEAR TALK ON MODERN DRUGS

There was a time when the dread sign "quarantine" was commonplace on the doorways of America's houses. Thanks to the "miracles" accomplished by modern drugs in the past 30 years, that sign has become obsolete.

Describing the role of the drug industry in achieving this and other dramatic gains in the struggle for better health, John Burgoon, representative of Smith, Kline and French Laboratories, Philadelphia pharmaceutical firm, told the Littlestown Rotary Club Tuesday that some of the chief perils to the health of Americans three decades ago have become quite rare.

In the intervening years, infectious diseases have been put to full rout. As a result of the development of sulfanilamide in the 1930's and powerful new antibiotics in the 1940's, death rates from infective and parasitic diseases dropped 76 per cent in 20 years.

"Many of today's routine treatments would have sounded miraculous not only 30 years ago, but as few as five or 10 years ago. Yesterday's miracles have become today's commonplaces," Mr. Burgoon declared. "The potent drugs discovered and developed by the scientists of the pharmaceutical industry have played a major role in the story of medical progress in the past 30 years." Today, he continued, the prescription drug industry has mounted a massive assault on disease.

Mr. Burgoon was introduced to the club by W. Richard Marshman, of the fellowship and attendance committee, in charge of Tuesday evening's program.

Visiting Rotarians in attendance were Granville Bixler, Westminster, and Donald Rutter, York, and the latter's guest, Russell Lynch, Philadelphia.

Next Tuesday evening, the Rotarians will tour the newly-re-modeled Littlestown National Bank. The vocational service committee, composed of Lloyd E. Crouse, chairman, Cloy L. Crouse, Mervin Harner, Edward H. Leister, Clarence R. Reck and Luther D. Snyder, will be in charge. During the tour, the group will have dinner at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's Hotel.

in trying to find the solution of problems and does a good job for four years. Then another man comes in and he recounts the problems ahead of him. No matter who comes in there are always problems and no matter who goes out there is always someone to take his place. We feel that we are indispensable but somehow the new man gets along all right. So we should not take ourselves too seriously.

"The governor of Pennsylvania is taking on a terrific job. If we support him he can do a good job."

MENGENS SPEAKS

Raymond Menges, chairman of the firemen's 100th anniversary committee, said, "We are happy with the prospects for the anniversary program and we will need your help. Any job you want to do we'll find a place for you. We have a very good memorial program starting off the anniversary with Gen. Eisenhower as the speaker and the Army Field Band providing the concert. This year's fireworks will be better than ever. We're getting away from the bang-bang type of fireworks."

"The first night Meade and Lee will be portrayed. The second night there will be a representation of the charge on E. Cemetery Hill. The third day Pickett's charge will be shown and July 4 will have an Independence Day theme. There will be special entertainment throughout the week. The dining hall will open each evening at 5 o'clock."

ENROLL 2 MEMBERS

Weaver said, "There has been some misunderstanding concerning the statement made by the national Civil War Centennial Commission secretary here last week. When he expressed the hope that the carnival type program would be avoided he was not speaking about the firemen's festival. We have gone over the festival program with the state commission and we have their blessing."

A minute of silence was observed for Alvin Bupp, Howard Small and Harry Troxell, members who died last year.

Acting Secretary Glenn Raffensperger announced that Donald Peters, Robert Shriver, Harold Small and Edward Straub are eligible to membership in the veteran firemen, having served 10 years as firemen. David Baker and Edward Paris who had become eligible previously were enrolled as new members.

Eighty-four attended the dinner. Donald Hammers was chairman of the committee in charge.

Two Men Lose Both Legs On Carrier When Steel Cable
Snaps As Jet Tries To Land

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Eleven crewmen of the disaster-prone carrier Constellation were injured in an aircraft landing accident. Two of them lost both legs, another one leg.

In a little more than two years, 56 men have been killed and 20 injured on the 75,000-ton warship.

The latest accident occurred Tuesday when a steel arresting cable snapped and whipped across the deck as a jet fighter attempted a landing.

"It was like a cracked whip," said a flight surgeon. "It had a guillotine effect. There was no time to get out of the way."

The accident occurred during landing tests as Comdr. H.S. Matthews, 41, of nearby Coronado, was coming in for a landing. The carrier was 110 miles west of San Diego.

The cable, supposed to snag the jet, broke.

OTHERS BREAK LIMBS
Matthews gunned his engine.

NAB FOUR MORE IN NATIONWIDE LOTTERY PLOT

READING, Pa. (AP)—State police have arrested two more persons in what they describe as a nationwide lottery scheme.

Arrested Tuesday at the Helfrich Printing Co. in Reading were Clarence S. Lewis, 61, and Miss Dorothy Helfrich, 51, both of Reading. Arresting officers, State Police Sgt. Leroy H. Lilley and Trooper Arthur W. McAnally said, Miss Helfrich and Lewis were partners in the printing firm.

The police accused them of printing lottery tickets for Cyrus Krall, arrested on Jan. 8 and charged with gambling. The police said Krall, now free on $1,000 bail, had a million lottery tickets when arrested.

ADMIT PLOT
Lewis and Miss Helfrich posted bail of $2,000 each for a hearing before William L. Hall, an alderman. No date was set for the hearing.

State Police Capt. Rocco P. Urella said the pair admitted printing more than 750,000 lottery tickets since 1952 or 1953.

Krall was arrested about the same time as Murray Baker, of Miami, Fla., and Victor O. Gates, Camp Hill, were picked up in a state police raid on a Harrisburg office. Gates and Baker posted bail of $3,000 each on various gambling charges.

The Berlin issue must be solved, he added, "to ban the danger of war."

The Soviet premier, in an address to 2,500 delegates and visitors at the East Germany Communist party's sixth congress, also called for conclusion of a German peace treaty which "will not bring gains to one side and losses to the other."

But Krushchev again set no deadline for a peace treaty, saying that because of the Communist wall dividing Berlin the signing of a peace treaty is not the same pressing problem it was before August 13, 1961—the date the wall started up.

Montgomery Ward Store Destroyed: Fire swept through the two-story brick department store building of the Montgomery Ward company on Frederick street near center square in Hanover early Monday, causing a loss estimated at $100,000. The origin of the fire was undetermined. The blaze was brought under control after a two-hour fight. Among the companies to respond were those from York, Littlestown, McSherrystown, New Oxford and Pennville. Several members of the Gettysburg fire company went to the scene but no local apparatus was taken there.

$2,700 Coal Set For Y.

Announcing a goal of $2,500, Mrs. W. C. Waltemyer outlined to the Board of Directors of the Y.W.C.A. at the regular January session of the group Monday afternoon arrangements for the annual finance drive. The board members heard that the drive is to be completed in a single week in February by a staff of 40 solicitors who will conduct the canvass in all sections of the county. The goal of $2,500 is $300 below the sum sought in the 1937 appeal. Mrs. Walter H. Danforth, president of the board, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh reported that the flooring on the first and second floors of the building had been refinished while the building was closed. It was announced that Miss Martha Lentz, house secretary, is on a two-week vacation in Florida and that Miss Flora Ogden will be on duty in the Y office during the absence of Miss Lentz. Mrs. John S. Rice reported on the Girl Reserve work. Mrs. John Pape reported for the Business and Professional Women's Club and invited board members to attend a series of lectures during the next three months which has been arranged by the club.

Little's Resignation Accepted:

A telegram received here by Ira Y. Baker, superintendent of Adams county public schools, informed him that the Stoneboro, Pa., board of education has received and accepted the resignation of Marsby C. Little as supervising principal of the public schools there, effective February 1. Little's appointment as assistant county superintendent of schools here was confirmed last week by the executive committee of the Adams county school directors' association.

She fills the vacancy on the board membership caused by the death on Monday of Peter C. Stock, who had served as treasurer of the board since its organization in 1899. John W. Brehm, who had served as treasurer since last October 1, when Mr. Stock resigned because of ill health, was re-elected treasurer, and these other officers were re-elected: President, Dr. E. H. Markley; vice president, Dorsey Dougherty; and secretary, George P. Black. Other members of the board are A. B. Plank, Charles B. Dougherty and C. J. Toot.

Today's Talk

THE STARRY NIGHT

Often I have become much confused in my mind as to God, and the life which He seems to have given to me. But when I have left this confusion of mine and zone out into the fields where the flowers grow and the earth breathes forth its pungent perfume from its heart — and when I have walked out under the great-blue sky at night and viewed the heavens so dotted with beauty, as though a vast tapestry of diamonds were spread all about up there, then my questionings have ceased.

The starry night should be sufficient to convince any man or woman that God lives in the world — somehow.

Theology has never confused me although I was brought up on it. Sects and creeds only mildly interest me. But, somehow, God appears real and simple and lovable to me. Mostly because I believe He represents all that is beautiful and lovable in this world.

I am inspired too with cold, frosty winter nights that give such splendor to the heavens with their stars. Things seem to appear so happy up there. Loneliness disappears with billions of stars twinkling at one.

No wonder the Psalmist exclaimed, upon viewing the heavens: "What is man that Thou art mindful of him!"

A man or woman feels insignificant, small and unimportant under such a glorious canopy.

I have loved the starry nights, far north, in Canada, and far south among the tropics. How often have I sat up late to meditate and wonder in each location. And I have always felt selfish and lonely when no one was with me to gather the beauty to his or her heart upon such occasions.

We miss so much of the everyday gifts that all the wealth in the world could not buy, yet which are so free to each one of us!

Just Folks

With habits bad which injure me
A little less concerned I'll be
And try my best to overthrow
The ones which injure those I know.

I will respect both smiles and tears,
And answer neither one with sneers,
My neighbor's rights shall sacred be,
Both unto him and unto me.

This year, whatever the days may bring,
I'll speak no word that leaves a sting,
But in the face of needs I find,
I'll try my hand at being kind.

The gossip that I hear or read
Henceforth I'll neither speak nor heed,
Of others thoughtful more I'll be
And just a little less of me.

Man's known to fight with courage grim
The faults that merely injure him,
But those which injure others here
Unchecked go on from year to year.

Imbibing In U.S.

Soars To Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—Considerable progress was made in imbibing last year. More may lie ahead.

The Distilled Spirits Institute, reporting this Tuesday, said it expects a jump to 260 or 262 million gallons this year.

Completed several months ahead of schedule and tested in trial runs last week, the new link completed the eastern network of P.R.R. electrification that extends to New York city and Washington. A party of railroad officials waited at Philadelphia to board the "Metropolitan Express" arriving at Philadelphia from New York at 10:05 a.m. R. C. Morse, vice president of the railroad for the eastern region, headed the group. Waiting in Harrisburg was the "Pennsylvania Limited" ready to make the first trip eastward 45 minutes after the "Metropolitan Express" arrived there.

Young Man's Despair Prompts Scranton To Pledge Progress, "Stand Straight, Walk Tall"

HARRISBURG (AP)—Here is the text of Gov. William W. Scranton's inaugural address:

My fellow Pennsylvanians: Nearly 300 years ago a God-fearing man carved the first bits of civilization out of the land that lay west of the Delaware.

His name was William Penn. He had an idea. It took root in our soil.

His idea was that men and women are resourceful and imaginative. He believed that, given a chance, they could turn back a wilderness, chisel out a monument to human dignity, and live in peace and prosperity.

HAD WISDOM, COURAGE

In an age rife with human hatred . . . with religious bigotry . . . with political persecution . . . he had the wisdom, and the courage, to launch a holy experiment.

He made Pennsylvania the bastion of freedom . . . the temple of tolerance . . . the showcase of economic enterprise.

He believed freedom is more than a cliché.

He believed courage is more than a slogan.

He believed human will power more than a match for all the obstacles of nature or economics.

He believed human ingenuity capable of solving human problems.

He believed indifference and despair can be put to rout by human hope.

But, most of all . . .

He believed in himself . . . he believed in his fellow men . . .

He believed in Pennsylvania.

That was three centuries ago.

CAMPAIGN STARTED

Three months ago I was campaigning through a Pennsylvania town. The day was dreary. A cold rain had drizzled down all morning.

A young man with tired eyes, a sad voice and a scared handshake told me: "Pennsylvania is no place for me."

And, a day later, I campaigned through a sun-drenched suburb. Other people with other, quite different, problems.

Another young man, this one with a kind of "I'm going places" look about him grasped my hand. He looked me in the eye. He said: "I can't for the life of me figure out why anybody would want to be governor of this state."

And he explained . . . "Pennsylvania is going nowhere."

That was three months ago.

DEBATES THEME

Three days ago I pondered what to say on the day that I became governor of this state.

I thought of William Penn three at the Community Center. In cooperation with Explorer Post 78 of Gettysburg, Advisor Stanley F. Frock and local Explorers will show slides at the Adams County Home Saturday evening, January 25. The slides were taken on the summer trip to Canada by the post. A leaders' meeting is scheduled for January 28, at which time there will also be an activity for Explorers.

RESCHEDULE HIKE

The annual winter hike was rescheduled at the meeting of Boy Scout Troop 84 at the Community Center on Monday evening. The hike, postponed last Saturday due to the weather conditions, will take place Saturday leaving at 8 a.m. from the center. The group will hike from Starners' Dam to Natural Dam. There was also a discussion on the troop's window display and activities for the Boy Scout Week observance in February. The display will be arranged in Zerling's show window, S. Queen St. Scoutmaster Edgar A. Wolfe met with troop members Tuesday evening to further plans for the display. The regular meeting will be held next Monday at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Paul E. Aloff, president of the Corewago Deany Council of Catholic Women and a member of St. Aloysius Parish Council who attended the national convention of the National Council of Catholic Women in November in Detroit, will present a detailed report at St. Aloysius Parish Council meeting tonight at 7:45 p.m. in the parish hall.

hundred years ago. But I remembered the young man of three months ago.

With this memory the vim and vigor of the campaign seemed to pour. The flush of election victory faded. The brave hopes of just yesterday seemed puny. The awful responsibility seemed to dwarf the high honor of the office I was about to assume.

STATE'S HERITAGE

But then more of Pennsylvania came to mind. More of what we have been taught and know of Pennsylvania. More of her heritage. More of her people . . . and their pride and their faith . . . the hands I had clasped . . . the warmth of their welcome.

I remembered the face of the woman. Woman of a town blasted by industrial migration. Plants closed. Gates locked. Menfolk idle. I remembered the courage in the face of the woman.

I remembered the eyes of the man. Man out of work. Tiny worry lines around those eyes. The haunting fear that self-respect might flee, but even stronger, the challenge: "Give me a chance, and you'll see what I can do." I remembered the hope in the eyes of the man.

RECALLS FARMER

I remembered the hands of the farmer. A sower of seeds. A cultivator of life. A man close to God. Hands flecked with soil, so the tan of the skin seemed almost one with the tan of the earth. Hands that make things grow. I remembered the pride of those hands.

I remembered the arms that swung a lunch pail. Skilled arms. Strong sinews. A cadence to his walk that said: "I do a day's work. I do it well." Perhaps the proudest boast of man. I remembered the fresh, pungent smell of independence.

I remembered the frown of the young college student. Inquisitive. Prove it or I won't believe it. Why can't Pennsylvania move ahead? Who says my only opportunities lie elsewhere? Is it wrong to care? What are you going to do about it? Yes, I remembered the anxious student.

And, I remembered the brow of a businessman. Furrowed? Yes, but perhaps even more accurately, concerned. "I have a duty here. A role to perform. I want Pennsylvania to climb to the top. I'm busy and it's easy to find excuses, but point the way and I'll do my share." Yes, I remembered the willingness in that face.

SUBSTANCE UNCHANGED

And, suddenly, I knew that Pennsylvania today is not really very different than the Pennsylvania of three centuries ago.

Yes, the challenges wear different faces. Problems assume different guises. But truly, we hold the same trump cards.

Resourceful ness, imagination, fortitude. And one more—faith. The Pennsylvania that responded to the 17th century promise of William Penn's holy experiment . . .

The Pennsylvania that nurtured an 18th century Ben Franklin and became the cradle of liberty . . .

The Pennsylvania that was strengthened by a 19th century influx of brave, stout hearts from the old world . . .

STRONG, VITAL

The Pennsylvania that in the 20th century has remained basically strong and vital, despite a buffeting from history's greatest technological revolution . . .

That Pennsylvania . . . don't tell me that Pennsylvania can't lick its problems, because I know it

Robber Collapses In Holdup Attempt

CHAMBLEE, Ga. (AP)—Detective Capt. Ted Wayne said Roy Alton Lane, 38, tried to rob the Peachtree Bank & Trust Co. Tuesday but everything went wrong.

Wayne said the man walked in, waved a pistol and ordered: "Put the money in a sack."

But Lane hadn't brought a sack. A bank employee started looking for one.

Then the gunman suddenly collapsed and bank employees tied him up—with a rope he had brought with him.

Lane, a onetime truck driver, was held for investigation of attempted bank robbery.

PUC HEARINGS

Monday a number of witnesses appeared including Maj. Gen. Edward Stackpole, Civil War author and publisher, who said he had made the tour in the Gettysburg Tours bus and was favorably impressed.

Paul Wolf Monday told of the service provided by his buses and listed a number of tours of the battlefield originating in Gettysburg and elsewhere. He said the service currently provided is adequate to the need.

Russell Van Atta, Harrisburg, vice president and traffic manager for Capitol Trailways, reported on tours of the battlefield provided by the buses of his company and also said that he believes no additional bus service is necessary for the battlefield.

PARTNERS ON STAND

William Ayre, president of Gettysburg Tours, told the examiner his company owns five buses and leases additional buses at peak seasons, and likewise stated there is no need for an additional bus service on the battlefield. Similar testimony was given by LeRoy Smith, partner with Ayre in the tours operation.

Richard Cole, E. Stevens St., dispatcher and supervisor for Gettysburg Tours, testified to details of its operation.

Joseph A. Bous, operator of Colton Motel here, testified those who stayed at his motel and used the Gettysburg Tours buses were satisfied with the trips. Similar testimony was given by Donald S. Weikert, desk man at Lincoln Motel who added he had had no requests from tourists for additional service.

5 LAWYERS INVOLVED

Testimony of witnesses holding there is a need for the service Dr. Knox's Centennial Cab company plans to provide was given at hearings held previously. The series of hearings began September 21. Other dates on which testimony was taken were October 17 and November 21.

At the hearings Attorney John W. Hagar, Harrisburg, and Attorney Donald M. Swope represented Dr. Knox; Attorney Ernest Burch, Harrisburg, and Attorney Edward B. Bullett represented Gettysburg Tours; Attorney Burch also represented Capitol Trailways; Attorney C. V. Graf, Harrisburg, represented Paul Wolf.

But let us hope that in the showing, both you and I will grow wiser and learn that today's opportunities are far more important than yesterday's mistakes.

PROGRESS AHEAD

With these opportunities, Pennsylvania is on the march. Toward greatness for herself. Toward progress, for her people.

Our Commonwealth has the resources, the human strength, the get-up-and-go from which greatness is made. There is work to do, lots of it, but Pennsylvanians have never shirked from that prospect.

In both the executive branch and in the legislature, all of us must vow today to do our part to bring about a new era in Pennsylvania progress. We must have the wisdom to keep what should be kept the courage to change what should be changed.

With the help of God let us embrace the challenge, let us welcome the labor.

Let us stand tall . . . as Pennsylvanians.

Let us walk proudly . . . as Pennsylvanians.

Notre Dame's five home football games in 1962 attracted a total of 251,833 fans.

PLAYER FIRES 9 UNDER PAR IN PREVIEW GAME

Melvin Greenwald, Hagerstown, testified to taking the tour on the Gettysburg Tours bus and said he was well pleased with the presentation.

BRAVES TAKE TWIN BILL AT WAYNESBORO

Gettysburg Junior High swept its second straight basketball doubleheader at the expense of the Waynesboro West Cyclones in Waynesboro Tuesday evening in a pair of hard-fought games.

Don Bickel's varsity got off to a 15-0 lead in the first quarter thanks to five goals by Kit Richardson and then sagged in the second period to find its margin slashed to 19-17 at half time. Richardson, who finished with 23 points, added 10 more in the third stanza as the Braves built up a 32-23 lead and then maintained their advantage to the finish. Joe Bowser led the Cyclones with 10 points.

After trailing 12-9 at half time, the Braves' reserves outscored their opponents 9-0 in the third period and eked out a 24-22 decision in the preliminary. Jim Allison, Dan Bream and John Heiser each tabbed half a dozen points for the winners.

Both Gettysburg teams are now 2-1. They will be idle until next Tuesday when they travel to Chambersburg to meet the Faust Tigers.

Aces Win Overtime Game In 7 Seconds

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It took only 7 seconds for the Quebec Aces to break the overtime jinx Tuesday night, and reclaim first place in the tight Eastern Division race of the American Hockey League.

Jimmy Morrison bounced in a shot from the blue line just 7 seconds after the start of the sudden-death overtime, giving the Aces a 2-1 victory over the Providence Reds in the night's only AHL game.

It was Quebec's first winning decision in 12 overtime games this season—and put the Aces back in the division lead, 1 point ahead of Hershey, 2 ahead of Providence, 4 ahead of Springfield and 6 ahead of Baltimore.

CLOSE FRIEND OF HORNSBY IS REMEMBERED

SEATTLE (AP)—The name of Rogers Hornsby is enshrined forever in baseball's Hall of Fame and in the heart of David Kosher. Each has a plaque as a visual reminder of the Rajah.

Seven men penetrated the hard outer core of Rogers Hornsby to become a friend.

One was Kosher, a cerebral palsy victim who did not walk until he reached the age of 16. Sports writers, encouraging Kosher's interest in athletics, introduced him to the Raj when Hornsby managed the Pacific Coast League Seattle Rainiers in 1951.

SIGNED SANTO

The brusque Hornsby took Kosher with him to the team's spring training camp as a clubhouse assistant. When the Raj moved on the following year to manage the St. Louis Cardinals he again took Kosher along.

Later the Chicago Cubs, on Hornsby's recommendation, hired Kosher as a scout. One player he signed for the Cubs was Ron Santo, the team's prized third baseman.

San Francisco's Giants hired scout Kosher away from the Cubs. Last year the Giants cut their scouting force and Kosher was among those lopped from the payroll.

RECEIVED PACKAGE

The recent death of Hornsby, added to the disappointment of a job lost, left the usually jovial Kosher grief stricken and almost inconsolable.

A bulky package came in the mail to Kosher a week after Hornsby died early this month. With it was a letter from Mrs. Hornsby.

"My husband wanted you to have this," the letter said. The package contained the personal plaque Hornsby was given when he was elected to the Hall of Fame.

DELONE TOPS CARLISLE HI FOR 7TH WIN

Down 22-17 at the end of the first half, the Delone Catholic first cagers turned in a sizzling third period and went on to defeat Carlisle 42-35 Tuesday evening at McSherrystown.

The Squires' defense limited the Herd to but two points in the third quarter as Coach J. T. Flaherty's squad shot into a 29-24 advantage going into the last quarter which was evenly contested with Delone holding the margin.

The victory was the seventh in 10 starts for Delone while the loss was the fifth in 13 outings for Carlisle.

Seven Delone players scored in the well-balanced attack with Bob McClintock leading with nine. Larry Sharp was high man for the losers with 11.

Delone's undefeated reserves ran their winning streak to 10 by taking the preliminary 58-49.

The Squires will return to competition Penn Catholic League competition Friday night when they meet Lancaster at McSherrystown.

NBA ALL-STAR CLASSIC TO BE TONIGHT IN L.A.

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Professional basketball presents its showcase of jewels tonight in the annual East-West All-Star Classic but one of the coaches, Fred Schaus of the West, was confronted with a problem.

The Los Angeles Lakers' pilot planned to start what he and most all cage observers believe would be perhaps the finest five in the history of the National Basketball Association attraction.

Schaus named as his starting team Walt Bellamy of Chicago and Bob Pettit of St. Louis as forwards, Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco at center and Elgin Baylor and Jerry West of Los Angeles as guards.

Schaus named as his starting team Walt Bellamy of Chicago and Bob Pettit of St. Louis as forwards, Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco at center and Elgin Baylor and Jerry West of Los Angeles as guards.

Differing Views

It developed that Schaus' ideas met universal applause from all sides except the men who run the Eastern Division.

They contended Bellamy was named by the selectors as a center, behind Wilt (The Stilt); that Baylor is a forward and should start there, and San Francisco's Guy Rodgers should open hostilities at his nominal position, a guard.

Schaus contends that once a squad is selected, he should be permitted to position his players as he pleases. He also thought the fans would appreciate seeing Baylor playing the backcourt against his opposite number, Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals.

RULING TODAY

It could be also that Schaus feels that Baylor, who is still hampered by a trick knee, might be more valuable at guard than at forward.

The board of directors of the league were scheduled to make a ruling on the controversy sometime today.

The coach of the East, Red Auerbach, meanwhile, decided on his starters—forward Jack Twyman of Cincinnati and Tom Heinsohn of Boston, center Bill Russell of Boston and guards Bob Cousy of Boston and Robertson.

The host Lakers expected a sell-out crowd of about 15,000 in the Sports Arena.

The West is a slight favorite.

EXPECT SHOCK WHEN DETAILS ON TAXES COME

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP) — Brace yourself for a shock when President Kennedy spells out to Congress, later this month, the $3.5 billion worth of reforms he wants tied to tax reduction.

The loopholes he would close may be your own.

They may range all the way from the stock options given to corporation heads right on down to the common income tax deductions long available to every middle-income householder.

BROADER BASE

At least a score of proposals to "broaden the tax base"—meaning to make more income subject to tax—and curtail or erase "unfair or unnecessary preferences" have been under study at the Treasury since Kennedy took office.

Just which ones the President will request, to offset in part the revenues lost by his three-year plan to reduce taxes by $13.5 billion, remain a well-kept Treasury secret. Kennedy gave no hints in his State of the Union message to Congress Monday.

In any event, tax specialists at the Capitol predict that Congress won't give all, or even nearly all, that Kennedy wants. It would be much easier politically to give less tax cut and less reform, they point out, thus arriving at the same deficit with less pain.

LEAST POPULAR

Least popular politically, among the proposals known to be under study, are income tax deductions which most families have come to consider a matter of justice and right. Nevertheless, Kennedy may request the pruning of some of these:

1. Deductions for medical outlays and casualty losses.
2. Deductions for sales and excise taxes paid to state and city governments.
3. The interest on mortgage payments.

HIS TARGETS

4. The privilege enjoyed by married couples of filing joint returns which split their income and reduce their total tax. Single persons pay much more on the same income.

Kennedy's targets are very likely to include some other tax provisions at which reform advocates have been shooting for years—the capital gains rate, depletion allowances, stock options, tax-free state and municipal bonds, and the $50 exclusion and 4 per cent tax credit on stock dividends.

CRITIC FINDS DISAPPOINTING WINDUPS ON TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The idea of the show was interesting.

The writer had an average, middle-class, middle-aged couple find $94,000 which had been hidden in the cellar of their house. At his wife's insistence, the husband turned the money over to authorities.

Instead of being a hero, he was immediately regarded with suspicion. Did he turn over all the money he found, or did he hold out some? Antagonisms started to build between the man and his wife. Even his job was affected.

Then, when the couple had pretty well convinced everyone they were honest, another $40,000 turns up in a cellar air space.

DISAPPOINTING WINDUP

What to do? Turn over this money too — and convince the world that he had kept it but had a change of heart? Keep it—and live carefully so none would suspect? Go away with the loot?

So far, so good. But then, apparently, the writer didn't know how to wrap it up. So he took the easy way out. In the final scenes, we saw the couple, happy as larks, burning the trouble-some $40,000 in their incinerator.

This was the disappointing, obvious wind-up of Sunday night's "Windfall" on NBC. It was also typical of so many original teleplays seen these days.

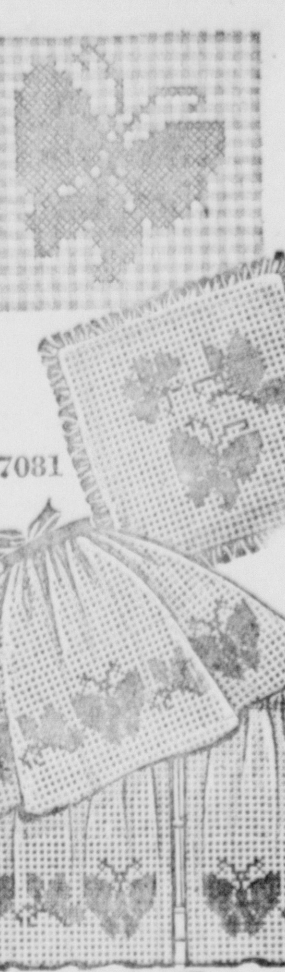

PADDING TROUBLE

Too often the writer of an hour show has a tidy plot which would make a nice 30-minute show—and proceeds to pad the remaining half hour with long, pointless scenes.

A recent "Sam Benedict" episode, for instance, was an interesting story about a builder charged with larceny. But, with some lots of time to fill, the director had Ida Lupino, playing the unhappy wife, wandering unhappily around a building site, getting progressively more plastered worrying about her marriage and otherwise wasting pre-

NEW FACILITIES CARRY SPEECH

NEW YORK (AP)—The Associated Press utilized new electronic equipment Monday to send an advance text of President Kennedy's State of the Union message to some newspapers in six minutes.

Utilizing a newly installed Data-speed system, AP transmitted more than 6,000 words at a rate of 1,050 words per minute. AP's Dataspaced facilities are used to speed the transmission of stock market tables throughout the country.

Newspapers as widely separated geographically as the Newark (N.J.) News and the San Diego (Calif.) Union received the Kennedy text in the time it ordinarily would have taken to send less than 400 words on standard news circuits.

EVANS ARGUES WITH WITNESS IN MINE PROBE

CARMICHAELS, Pa. (AP) — The outgoing state secretary of mines says poor ventilation existed at the Robena No. 3 mine prior to an explosion that killed 37 men.

Lewis E. Evans made the claim Monday during a mine superintendent's testimony at a public hearing at nearby Gararda, Fort.

He said some changes in mining procedures probably would be necessary.

"THEY WEREN'T"

Michael Wydo, superintendent of the U. S. Steel Corp. mine, was on the stand when Evans asked if he (Wydo) were satisfied all "dead-end" areas in the underground tunnels could be properly ventilated.

"Yes," Wydo replied. "I'll tell you they weren't," Evans retorted sharply.

W. A. Boyle, acting president of the United Mine Workers, asked Wydo if he had any suggestions for a change in mining methods.

NO SUGGESTIONS

When he answered that he didn't have any suggestions at the present, Evans said: "I'm damned sure we won't let you operate without changes."

Investigators questioned Wydo further on his order to restore power in the mine following the break-down of a ventilation fan. This occurred at about the time of the explosion.

"How did you determine it was okay to turn the power back on?" Evans asked.

"The fan was running," Wydo replied.

QUIZZED ON PROCEDURE

"In other words, without ascertaining what put the fan down,

Long Weekends, New Anthem, National Lottery: Utopia

WASHINGTON (AP) — What this country needs is more imported cork stoppers, fewer imported potatoes, a national lottery, and a balanced budget.

It could also use a department of uriculture, vitamin A in its nonfat dry milk, colored postcards, more three-day weekends, a new version of the Star-Spangled Banner, and Grandmother's Day.

These, at least, are gaps in the national scene noted by members of the House of Representatives who have rushed to fill them in the opening moments of the 88th Congress.

2,000 BILLS INTRODUCED

Although the House has been in session only about six hours, some 2,000 bills have already been introduced. They deal with almost every subject imaginable, including using Social Security records to locate runaway parents.

This is a suggestion of Rep. Abraham J. Multer, D-N.Y., who could function pretty well as a one-man legislature. He already has 173 bills in.

Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, D-N.Y., would like more holidays to fall on Monday and has a bill making that the official day for observing Washington's Birthday, Memorial you put the power back on?" Evans questioned.

Day, Independence Day and Veterans Day.

"I would have gotten information on the fan shutdown after the power was back on," Wydo said.

Later, James Westfield, representing the U. S. Bureau of Mines, asked Wydo, "Were you carrying out your duties when you did not check underground before turning on the power?"

"Yes," Wydo answered. "It is our major concern to get the fan going as soon as possible."

DAYS FOR ALL PURPOSES

Besides Grandmother's Day, there are those who think we should observe Shut-Ins Day, Purple Heart Day, Children's Day, Food Service Week, Senior Citizens Month and Welded Products Month.

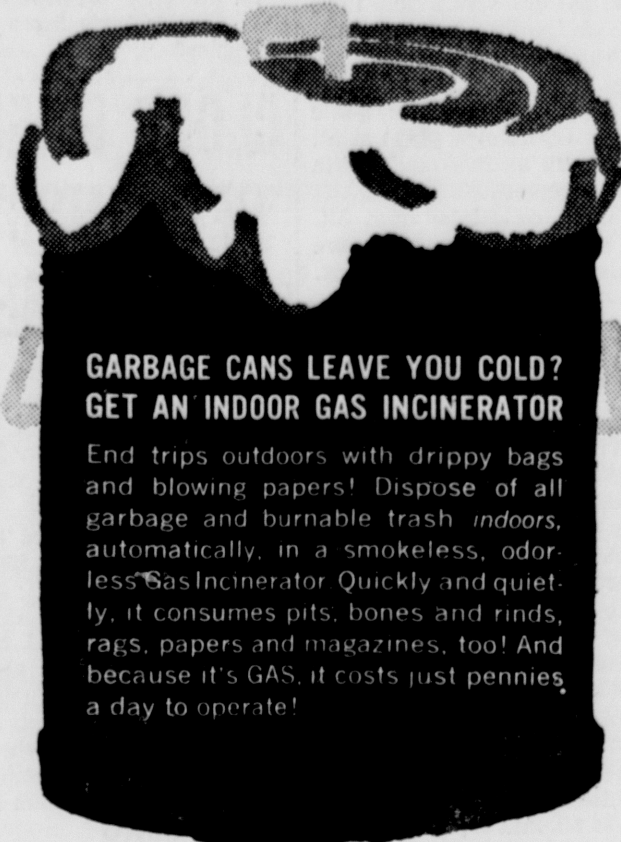

Rep. Lindley Beckworth, D-Tex., is fearful the new higher postal rates will prevent elderly pensioners from communicating with their families. He is seeking a colored penny postcard for strictly personal messages.

There are bills to help Indians, artists, nurses, ducks, veterans, page boys. Bills to get the United States out of the United Nations and retire the national debt.

And there is a measure by Rep. Vernon W. Thomson, R-Wis. All he would like is a little national recognition for the Circus World Museum at Baraboo, Wis.

Eight players gained more than 100 yards rushing for Syracuse last season. Six of them will be back next fall.

Is the small car going out of the picture?

They're growing the new cars much bigger this season.

And to think that only a year or two ago, it was just the other way around.

For a while there, you could buy a car that you could actually park on the first try. And that didn't need power this and power that to get around the block.

We're going to miss them. And we think a lot of other people will, too.

Because we think there are people who still want to put a sensible amount of money into a sensible amount of car.

So prepare yourself: the 1963 Volkswagen is still exactly the same size.

And it looks exactly the same.

Volkswagen dealers still have parts to fit any VW ever made.

And the people who bought 1962 Volkswagens don't feel as though they're driving last year's model.

Maybe most small cars are going out of the picture. But there's one small exception.

JFK'S REQUEST FOR TAX SLASH GETS TOP NOD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress registered unmistakable signs today it intends to accept President Kennedy's invitation to cut taxes this year.

But members awaited more concrete details than the President provided in Monday's State of the Union message before committing themselves to his three-year program to lower taxes by $13.5 billion and recoup $3.5 billion by revenue law reforms.

He is expected to send a special message on taxes to Congress possibly as early as Jan. 24.

Almost every member of the House and Senate favored reducing taxes. Although a solid segment demanded reductions in spending, too, few appeared to believe they would be forthcoming.

CRITICIZE BREAK

Another group said Kennedy proposed too big a break for individuals, who would share in $11 billion of the reductions, whereas business would get only $2.3 billion.

A storm seemed certain to break when the administration spells out its proposed loopholes, closing provisions.

Some sources expect him to ask for the lowering of family items such as deductions for medical expenses, deductions for state and local sales taxes, interest on mortgage payments and joint returns filed by married couples.

Some members of Congress have heard that among other things, Kennedy may ask for a thorough overhauling of depletion allowances which affect 100 products.

The oil industry would be certain to throw its powerful weight against a proposal to limit drastically its 27½ per cent depletion allowance.

The President's submission of a budget of around $99 billion on Thursday will whet the controversy over whether it is wisetovote down the throat of a three-year deficit of about $30 billion.

House and Senate, Kennedy put so much emphasis on his tax program that other matters were relatively obscured.

Congressional liberals muttered—the Democrats mostly to themselves and the Republicans publicly—about Kennedy's relatively brief dismissal of the social welfare issues he has pounded in the past.

The President devoted only two sentences to educational needs, omitting any specific mention of federal school aid.

He used only 37 words to appeal for action on what he depicted in 1962 as the prime domestic issue before Congress—Social Security financing of health care for the elderly. The 87th Congress rejected it.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
POUNDS A-POPPIN'. Have you weighed in lately? It is just about now that holiday feasting begins to register on the scales.

Gains seldom pop up overnight. Your calorie intake averages out over a period of several weeks.

Consequently, if you overindulge for 10 days or so and do not thereafter compensate by taking less than a normal amount of food, your weight is bound to increase. Of course some women contend that if they eat an extra olive, it shows at once.

Small women do seem to gain more quickly than their taller sisters. But that's usually a trick of the eye. A few additional pounds are simply less apparent, when they are carried by a tall figure. There more hiding space.

That is not to imply, however, that your height has no bearing on your weight. Both height and bony structure must be taken into consideration, if you wish to stay within a calorie count that maintain ideal weight. The normal count for a petite would be somewhat less than for a woman of greater stature.

The easiest way to estimate a maintenance count is to weigh weekly for a month. Your scale will indicate your accuracy and the need for any adjustment.

But make no mistake, a maintenance count and a reducing count cannot be figured by the same arithmetic. Whatever your stature, a reduction is achieved only by undercutting your normal count to 1,200 calories daily. Start today, if you have gained in the past month and you will lose up to 10 pounds in the next. What's more, that midwinter lethargy will go with the pounds. You'll have a new look and outlook!

SLAYER SORRY, JUDGE GIVES LIFE SENTENCE

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE, N.J. (AP)—Thomas R. Clements responded to a sentence of life imprisonment for the slaying of Sandra Ruth Hall with the words: "I'm sorry your honor, but being sorry cannot do any good."

"Maybe some day," the 23-year-old Clements added, "I'll be able to make it up to her mother and father."

Miss Hall's mother, two brothers and a sister were in the room when Superior Court Judge J. Anthony Caffero pronounced the sentence Monday.

OFFERED NO DEFENSE

Clements, a Philadelphia plumber, had pleaded no defense to an indictment accusing him of the Labor Day murder of Miss Hall.

The body of the 22-year-old Philadelphia woman was found on the beach at North Wildwood.

Miss Hall had come to North Wildwood with her brothers. Clements was there with two friends.

Clements told police that when he met Miss Hall, with whom he had attended parochial school, he invited her for a drink and they visited several taverns.

TWO PARKING ORDINANCES ARE ADOPTED

McSherrystown borough council adopted two amendments to the town's motor vehicle ordinance at a meeting Monday night in the mayor's office in the municipal building.

The first amendment to the ordinance concerns parking at the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church. Council decided that parking will be allowed in a parallel position alongside the church building and at the end of the park. There will be no parking in the alley from the east end of the park to the end of the school grounds. Parking will also be allowed in the school yard.

The second amendment ordained by the town council concerns parking at the intersection of Fourth and Main Sts. No parking will be allowed for a distance of approximately 60 feet on all four sides of the intersection on Main St.

FRUIT PRICES JUMP; PUSH UP VEGETABLES

By DARDEN CHAMBLISS
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Household fruit and vegetable budgets are taking a beating because of weather on both coasts.

Freezes have boosted orange prices by as much as 100 percent in some places.

The dockworkers strike along Atlantic and Gulf coasts also has contributed to the price-pushing shortage.

in next fall.

Vegetable prices also have been affected, but because it takes only a few weeks for a new crop to progress from seed to market, the price effects are more temporary.

The Florida freeze in December that destroyed about a third of the state's citrus crop is the heaviest influence in rising prices.

Florida produces much of the nation's citrus crop.

STUDY RESULTS

The extent of damage is still being evaluated. It is still not known how many trees were damaged permanently or how much fruit now on trees will turn out to be unsatisfactory.

A Department of Agriculture spokesman estimated that the Florida freeze means the nation's supplies of oranges and grapefruit will be only about 70 percent as great as a year ago.

Julius Leitzer, a trade spokesman, said that the combination of the Texas, Florida and California freezes with bad weather in Europe is generating a worldwide citrus shortage.

NEW GOVERNOR BEGINS LONELY TASK TODAY

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
HARRISBURG (AP) — William Warren Scranton began today what is sometimes called Pennsylvania's loneliest job, the governorship.

Immediately, he faced a political problem that could become common in his next four years as chief executive—legislative delay.

Senate Democrats issued a terse warning they would not rubber stamp any of his actions, even in his earliest hours. The Democrats caucused shortly after Scranton was inaugurated Tuesday and refused to join Senate Republicans in confirming four cabinet appointments.

12 CONFIRMED

Since two thirds Senate approval is required, the Democratic holdout barred immediate confirmation of secretaries of property and supplies; mines and mineral industries; commerce, and state police commissioner. Twelve other cabinet nominees were confirmed.

But if the political maneuvering in the Senate cast a slight pall over the new governor's first day in office, there was little the outgoing party could do—or would do—to quench the enthusiasm of inauguration day.

The jubilant GOP capped two days of festivities Tuesday night with a plush black tie and formal gown ball that lasted into the early hours this morning.

dinner that resembled a delayed New Year's Eve party.

The scene shifted to the state Senate chamber Tuesday morning where Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer took his oath of office. The former senator from Meadville will preside over the Senate in his post as lieutenant governor.

Later at the Farm Show Arena a standing-room crowd of 12,000 cheered as Scranton took the oath of office from Chief Justice John C. Bell of the state Supreme Court. Bell who served briefly as governor in 1947 was joined by former Republican Governors Arthur H. James, James H. Duff and Edward Martin at the inaugural proceedings.

UNITE FOR PROGRESS

The 45-year-old incoming governor urged the state's citizens to unite for progress in the years ahead.

"Our commonwealth has the resources, the human strength, the get-up-and-go from which greatness is made," said Scranton.

He did not outline any specific plans for his administration. Rather, he restricted the five-minute address to general principles he has followed.

Scranton became the 103rd chief executive of the commonwealth in a line that began with the proprietary governorship of William Penn in 1681.

KING ATTENDS CHICAGO TALKS

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King has given his blessing to an interfaith campaign against racial barriers. But he says each church "should remove the yoke of segregation from its own body."

He also said church members should bring minority families into their communities and help

The Atlanta Negro clergyman, a leader of the nonviolent wing of the forces of integration and president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, outlined his views Tuesday.

He held a news conference at the National Conference on Religion and Race, a meeting of 650 members of Protestant, Jewish and Roman Catholic organizations who are drawing up a program of action.

Sargent Shriver Jr., director of the Peace Corps, addressed the conferees Tuesday night and suggested that church members could tithe their time and form volunteer religious units to work to eliminate racial barriers in the United States.

STRONTIUM 90 IS PROCESSED AT CLEARFIELD

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP)—The Martin Co. inserted 14 capsules of strontium into a generator Tuesday and said it was the first strontium 90 processed as nuclear fuel by a private company.

The generator, built by Martin and called SNAP-7B Systems for Nuclear Power, is designed to provide 60 watts of electricity continuously for 10 years.

It will furnish power for a foghorn and a blinking light at an unmanned lighthouse operated in the upper Chesapeake Bay by the Coast Guard.

BY REMOTE CONTROL

Remotely controlled manipulators dropped the radioactive capsules into the generator at Martin's Radioisotope Production Facility at Quehanna.

The firm said the Quehanna plant is the only facility maintained by private industry for large-scale radioisotopic production.

The generator is 22 inches in diameter, 34½ inches high, weighs 4,600 pounds including the uranium shielder. Its electrical output of 60 watts is equal to the most powerful isotopic generator built so far in this country.
